LIGHTS AND SHADOWS OF THE WAR

Correspondence of the Associated Press

WARSAW, Dec. 24.—It took the Germans just about one week to install in the province of Warsaw, the most important in all Poland, a government that, for the smoothness of its operation, seems remarkable under the circumstances.

Only a few days after the fall of Warsaw it was announced that General von Beseler had been appointed governor general, not only of the city but of the district comprising some 70 square kilometers. Like von Bissing of Belgium, he is the supreme authority, with powers infinitely greater than the emperor possesses in relation to Germany. Under von Beseler stand General von Etsdorff as governor of the city of Warsaw, and military chief, and his excellency, Kries, as administrative chief in charge of all civilian matters. Under them stands Police President von Glasenapp, former police president of Cologne, who exerts both military and civil authority, the first under the direction of von Etsdorff, the second under Kries. Upon him falls the burden of detail work, the practical administration of the city and its suburbs. His first aide is Mayor Sahm, former mayor of the city of Bochum, an expert in administrative matters. In addition there are, in the police department, any number of men who are experts in their particular lines and who head the various departments.

The Germans found, on taking Warsaw, a "citizens committee" of Poles and Jews, headed by Prince Lubomirski, into whose hands the Russians had confided the welfare of the city. This committee was allying as best it could the needs of the people in charitable ways, and wrestling with the food problem.

The Germans immediately gave official recognition to the committee and prepared to work hand in hand with it. But one subcommittee, that in charge of the coal problem, has been disbanded. Prince Lubomirski occupies a sort of dual position. He is, first, the native mayor, and secondly the committee head in its work for charity and food supplies.

Not only Warsaw city but the district of Warsaw and that of Radzynin adjoining, to the northeast, are subject to the police rules and regulations. The branch departments of the praeisium include a bureau of communal affairs of the district exclusive of Warsaw district; a bread and four department; a complaint department, where, for instance, citizens lodge complaints against bakers; a customs office; a veterinary department, which has had an enormous task in ridding the city of mad dogs; a censorship bureau which passes on all plays and films; a pass division which issues credentials to the residents of the district; an employment bureau; and a division which assists the wives of former German residents of Warsaw who are interned in Siberia and elsewhere.

For the first time in approximately one hundred years the Poles are now permitted to produce their native—and anti-Russian—plays. Warsaw today has six theaters, including an opera house, running full blast. Each is packed to the doors night after night, partly with German officers and soldiers, for the most part with Poles.

By all means the most popular production is a play purporting to show the cruelties attending the domination of Poland by the Russians. It is historically old, but never has been allowed before.

In the opera house some of the more popular operas as well as a number of purely Polish productions are given. There is a really excellent orchestra and, especially, a number of first rate dancers. By all odds the favorite opera is "Carmen," which is given two and sometimes three times a week.

The stage setting and stage management of each and every theatrical or musical production seems to give evidence of a very elemental and undeveloped taste.

A dance will be given by the Loyal Order of Moose at the Airdome Christmas eve. Admission free. Everybody invited. At 11 o'clock there will be a prize waltz for a fine turkey.—Adv. D23td

BETTER CITIZENSHIP
IS AN URGENT NEED

This retaliation took the form of accusation of lawmakers as crooks, the impeachment of officials as embezzlers, and judgment and execution against all authority, political or religious, or possessions, earned or inherited.

"Then there arose in the community self-selected leaders, who to advance their ambitions for office or noisy recognition, capitalized these roarings of discontent under the hue and cry of 'down with society, death to the courts, contempt for law,' a scuff at religion and a defiance of God.

"The result was in the last twenty years the new born American and the imported American have known nothing of America except that it was a place where all other Americans certified there were no man of honor, no things of decency, no institution in which any man could have a purpose except to overthrow as being unworthy.

"As a remedy we should promptly establish by law that the right of a citizen to participate in elections is a duty; that the failure of the citizen to perform his duty at the ballot box consecutively for a certain length of time should be punished by having the right of suffrage withdrawn from him. To this there should be added the further law, enforcing upon all who have enjoyed the benefit of naturalization, the duty to comply with citizenship as loyal Americans, and prescribing that any citizen whose conduct is such as to be unworthy by the order of the courts. With these two remedies reserved to the government of this high prerogative and merit of this high prerogative and more devotion to citizenship in order to be worthy of its continued enjoyment."
